LIFE

Senior queen contestants and escorts received the announcement that T. Miller was the new Homecoming Queen. Last year's queen, H. Slagle, must relinquish her crown.

Homecoming Queen, T. Miller and escort T. Stump were surrounded by the Homecoming court, S. Giska, J. VanDyke, F. Chrisman, J. Smeltzer, H. Slagle, A. Steiner, K. Yoder, K. Hunsberger, S. Johnson, T. Beer, D. Dorsey, and C. Stump.

Homecoming Is Complete With a Panther Victory

The tension was practically tangible as everyone awaited the results. Everyone was soon to find out that Tonya Miller, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Miller, was to be the new Homecoming Queen. The announcement was made by Bart BeMiller and cheers went up loud and clear. Tonya was crowned the 1979 Homecoming Queen by Holly Slagle, the former queen.

It was a good night for the entire football team and the Panther fans, as well as for Tonya. The team was able to hold Bremen off for a Panther victory over the Lions. Although close, the Panthers pulled the game out with a 16-14 win to make the Homecoming night complete.

TOP LEFT: T. Miller was crowned the 1979 Homecoming Queen on September 28. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Miller of Wakarusa.

Rockin' and Rollin'

Loud music and people dancing were the typical sights at the many dances held throughout the year.

Many clubs and organizations sponsored dances for enjoyment and fund-raising. The turnout at these dances was super.

One of Northwoods dances was enough to keep a person dancing for weeks.

RIGHT: D. Chokey, J. Hostetter, R. Applewhite and many others enjoy dancing to the music.

BELOW: Many students and graduates enjoy an evening listening and dancing to the many different bands.

TOP: These students prove that slow dancing is still "in"

Sweetheart Ends With Win!

On Friday, February 15, 1980, Lynn Brown was crowned the 1980 Sweetheart Queen before the large crowd awaiting the start of the NorthWood—Bremen varsity basketball game. Lynn was escorted by Fred Chrisman. The other senior queen candidates were Cheryl Brubaker, escorted by Randy Rohrer, and Jill Smeltzer, escorted by Jeff Martin.

After the crowning, the Panther players played on to victory, beating the Bremen Lions 72-65. The evening ended with the Sweetheart dance featuring the band Sass.

TOP RIGHT: T. Geyer and S. Hoover make a cute couple as crown bearer and flower girl. Tohn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Geyer. Steph is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hoover.

RIGHT: The shocked Jonathan Forbes (K. Rensberger) is outraged as he complains to the uncooperative officer (M. Hochstetler) about Brad's behavior.

BELOW: Alma (S. Tuttle) is always very outspoken about her ideas on Jan's (K. Lentz) problems.

BOTTOM: Brad (L. Ramer) is outraged at the way Jan (K. Lentz) decorated the apartment which she is soon to share.

Pillow Talk Great Success

The audience in the NorthWood High School auditorium on November 16 and 17 was entertained by the fall Drama production Pillow Talk. This production starred Karen Lentz as Jan Marlow and Lonnie Ramer as Brad Allen. They were surrounded by a fine supporting cast which helped produce an excellent play.

Pillow Talk was about two people who shared a party telephone line. Every time Jan wanted to use the phone, Brad would be on it talking to one of his many girlfriends. Jan disliked Brad until he posed as a Southern gentleman, and she fell in love with him.

TOP: Brad Allen (L. Ramer) puts on a Southern accent to convince Jan Marlow that he really is a nice guy.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Jan Marlow (K. Lentz) tries to convince Mrs. Walters (M. Brady) that she knows what she is doing when it comes to home decorating. Meanwhile Jan's business associate, Mr. Pierot (D. Blucker), waits impatiently.

RIGHT: P. Noaker and J. Brady displayed their vocal talents by singing "Ridin' the Storm Out".

FAR RIGHT: Soloist C. Yoder livened up the evening by singing "Little Flowers".

BELOW: The highlight of the evening was an imitation of "King Gut" by a group of senior guys.

Rollin' in the Aisles

Laughter filled the air and bodies were "rollin' in the aisles" as the Northwood students presented their talents to a packed house on October 13, 1979, in the Northwood Auditorium. This yearly event, known as Panthers on Parade, was awaited by many as various students displayed unbelievable acts.

Highlighting the evening was a group of senior guys doing their imitation of "King Gut". This group consisted of M. Campbell, S. Strakowski, J. Brady, S. Giska, R. Slagle, M. Hochstetler, K. Heckaman, F. Chrisman, T. Gerber, and A. Steiner.

Vocal solos, duets, quartets, comedies, and rock groups were among the entertainment displayed.

Emceeding the evening of fun were seniors J. Grimm and L. Gross.

TOP LEFT: These two crazy gals, R. Burkholder and S. Burkholder, did their act, "Beep Beep", by riding tricycles.

LEFT: Getting the guys' attention was a quartet of four senior girls, M. Metzger, K. Lentz, S. Davis, and C. Murphy, singing "Around the Corner".

ABOVE: Emceeding the night of fun was J. Grimm and L. Gross.

"New" Students in School

Laughter, confusion, and panic were among the expressions shown on the faces of the "new" students on November 16, 1979. On this day Northwood High School held its annual S.W.A.P. (Switch with a Parent) Day.

Swap Day was an unusual experience for most of the "new" students. Many were in the wrong classes, some did not show up for classes, and some even visited the same class a second time! It seemed as though the teachers were going crazy from all this confusion.

One Teacher said, "Boy, am I glad this only comes once a year and is only for a half of a day. When this day is over, I always go home and try to relax. But it usually takes three days to recover."

One never imagines that the simple task of opening a locker would be hard, tedious job, but many parents proved this to be true. Seeing parents fight with the lockers brought back memories of Freshman days.

All in all, it was an unusual, but fun day for both the regular and "new" students. As one parent said, "It was an experience I'll never forget."

A Week of Fun

The halls and surges were cluttered with all types of pictures and posters. Students, on that particular day, were wearing glasses. Some were big; some were little. This crazy week, where on certain days students did certain things, was known as Spirit Week.

Spirit week was the week of the boys' basketball sectional. The cheerleaders designated what day the students would wear or do certain things. For example, on Monday all students, to show their spirit, were to wear glasses of any sort.

That week consisted of sock it to 'em day, dress down, hats off, jewels, and red & black day. Many students and teachers participated in this week of fun.

Right: Captain Sanjar (R. Biever) must kneel down to the Princess (K. Lentz) because that is what is expected, although secretly they are in love.

The Apple Tree

The spring drama production this year was "The Apple Tree." It was presented on March 27 and 28 by a fine cast under the direction of Miss Sherry Hoover and Miss Janet Vanderkolk.

"The Apple Tree" actually consisted of three short plays. Each starred Karen Lentz and Rich Biever and had an excellent supporting cast.

The first of the three plays was about Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. It was more of a comical view of their life in the Garden and after they were forced to leave it. This was the longest of the series of three plays and also the source of the name "The Apple Tree."

Vacation Traditions

Last minute shopping, packing the suit cases, and making sure everything was ready was the talk of school the week prior to spring vacation.

For the past years, the tradition has been that the seniors go to Florida during Spring Vacation, which was April 4-13, 1980. Most seniors stayed at Daytona Beach and sun bathed the entire week. At night they went out and saw the sights.

Others went with Campus Life. They spent the week camping and went to Disney World for a day.

All the students needed that vacation time and when the Florida people came back, the pale people looked sick.

A Night to Remember

Last minute odds 'n ends rushed many prom goers the day of May 3, 1980. Guys had tuxes and flowers to get. Girls had dresses to alter and make-up to put on.

The dinner started promptly at 8:00 p.m. at Amish Acres. The meal consisted of ham and turkey, stuffing and potatoes, corn, green beans, and desserts.

Then, after the dinner, they all came back to the school and either danced or watched the movie "Superman." At 1:00 a.m. the afterprom started. That consisted of bowling and watching the movie, "Good-Bye Girl." The next day many students went to the Dunes, Brookfield Zoo, and various other places.

It was a night to remember!

New York, New York

November 10 to 13, 1979 was the most awaited event of the year for some juniors and seniors. During this time, many of them went to New York for a 4-day vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Troyer and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Weaver chaperoned this trip. The group went to see the musical "Snow White" at the Radio City Music Hall. They also stayed up late and on one of the nights, a shooting took place right beside the hotel where they were staying!

All in all, it was a fun filled vacation for those juniors and seniors who went to New York.

Fun Yet FRIGHTENING

One hundred ninety-one seniors graduated from Northwood High School on May 18, 1980, most after four years in attendance. The day was warm, but it was a pleasant day for the graduates to take that big step from high school out into the big, wide world.

Much planning and preparing was involved in going through the twelve years of school. Planning on the part of the parents in the first six years of school; combined planning between the student and parents during the next three to five years; and career and future planning between the student, parents, and counselors during the remaining high school years. After all the planning was completed, it was fun to step out into the world, but to most it was also very frightening.

Top: Ladies and Gentlemen, the graduating class of 1980.

Above: M. Yoder finds time to relax and take a nap before graduation.

Class Time

Hard at work or goofing off—one or the other was always going on in the classrooms.

Most students took advantage of the time in class to work on that particular subject. Many students could not afford to goof off because of the high quality of classes they took to better themselves. However, several students took the last five minutes in the period to do their goofing off before going to the next class and having to study all over again.

All in all, most students spent their class time wisely.

Strong Hitting Makes Baseball Go

The Boys' Baseball Team ended its season with the best over-all record ever at 25 wins and 11 losses. The NLC record was 8 wins and 6 losses which was good enough for 3rd place in the conference. Brian BeMiller and Todd Adams were chosen to the 1st NLC team and Jim Sumpter and Brooks Elliott made the 2nd team. Brian BeMiller was chosen Most Valuable Player and Brad Gross and Dave Zercher were chosen as co-captains. Todd Adams was batting champ. The B-Team had a record of 11 wins and 7 losses.

Panthers Have Pizzazz

The excitement that was held during the 1979 Northwood High School football season was fabulous. The Panthers, as a team, posted a 7-3 record which showed they were full of determination. Many individual and team records were broken showing the talent of these young athletes. Senior, Todd Adams, was commended for scoring the most touchdowns, and he accumulated 44 points. Steve Miller, a Junior, was responsible for making 66 solo tackles.

Senior Brian BeMiller was awarded the M.V.P. award along with being an honorary captain. Other captains of the team were Kent Heckaman and Mark Hochtetter. The Dan Ransberger Mental Attitude award was presented to Senior Jeff Gessinger.

Talent Takes Effect

Volleyball

A very successful year was the result of the 1979 Varsity Volleyball team. They finished with a record of 11-5. These young girls worked hard to prove that they could do it for their coach, Miss Jan Shrock, as well as for themselves. This team was loyal and hardworking, and put forth a great deal of effort in all they attempted. The M.V.P. award went to Vonda Mullet, a Junior. Lori Gross, a Senior, received the Mental Attitude Award and Honorary Team Captain went to Tonya Miller, also a Senior. Jill George and Dee Housour were the teams dedicated managers.

Through the rain, heat and cold the Northwood Cross Country Team once again had a victorious season with an outstanding record of 9-2. This was the 3rd consecutive year that the "Black Pack" captured the Covington Catholic Invitational Title in Kentucky. They also placed 2nd in both the N.L.C. meet and the Elkhart Sectional. But the "Black Pack" spirit did not stop running at Sectional. They ran right through Regional on to Semi-State in Fort Wayne where they placed 8th. Even though 8th place was not enough for the whole team to go to State, Senior Randy Rohrer and Junior Jeff Strawkowski had the opportunity to compete. In that meet Randy placed 53rd and Jeff placed 70th. Both were commended for a job well done.

The M.V.P. award went to Senior, Randy Rohrer, while Senior, Dean Anglemeyer, received honorary captain. Junior, Tim Herr was awarded the Most Improved Runner.

Panthers Have Smashing Season

The Boys' Tennis Team started off the season with a winning streak of nine until they met rival Goshen. There they were defeated 2-3. But that didn't stop the Panthers. The team went on to win five more matches to end their season with a 14-7 record. A 4-3 record in conference play resulted in 4th place.

Senior Mike Campbell was awarded the Most Valuable award. Mike played the number one singles position all year. He also had an outstanding record of 20 wins and 6 losses. Mike was also awarded a trophy for most singles games won. Freshman Stan Beehler was named the Most Improved player

Varsity B-Ball Finishes Strong

The mighty Panthers ended their season with 7 wins and 14 losses. Most of the wins came at the end of the season. Highlights came when Senior Todd Grove reached 1118 career points during the Elkhart Memorial game. Todd is to be commended for the fine effort he has given to the team during his high school career.

Senior Brian Bemiller was named Captain for the Panther squad. He also received an award for the most rebounds. MVP was awarded to Senior Todd Grove. Todd Adams, a Senior, received the Free Throw award and the Best Defensive Player award. "Pride, Hustle, and Desire" Award went to Senior Tom Loucks.

Girls Post Best Record Ever

The Girl's Basketball Team posted a fantastic record of 14 wins and 5 losses, with a 10 game winning streak. This was the best record in NorthWood's history. Coach Neff can look forward to next year's season as only one team member graduated this year.

MVP Award went to sophomore Brenda Ervin. Brenda also received the Free Throw Award. Vonda Mullet, also a sophomore, received the Most Rebounds Award and the Best Defensive Player Award. Mental Attitude Award went to Junior Steph Beck. Steph also received the Co-Captain Award along with Senior Trina Ringenberg.

Larry Mishler to SEMI-STATE

The NorthWood Wrestling Team had a disappointing season with a 4-7 record. Senior Doug Kirkdorffer won the Most Pins Trophy and also had the most pins of the season with 12 out of 14. This ranks 8th in NorthWood history. Fred Chrisman, a Senior, won the Steve Hazlewood Best Attitude Award and Rob Slagle, also a Senior, was the most valuable wrestler. The team chose Senior Tim Stump as their Honorary Captain for the 1979-80 season. Juniors Larry Mishler, Wayne Maggard, and Senior Rob Slagle were the only Sectional Champions. Junior Larry Mishler went on to Semi-State.

Seniors Dominate Golf Team

Wins over LaVille and East Noble highlighted the 1979 Girls' Golf Team which was dominated by Seniors. The team was lead by Senior Karen Lentz who had an average of 45.89 and who was later named Most Valuable Player. Senior Trina Ringenberg lead the team with low putting average. Trina averaged a fantastic low of 17 putts per match. Most improved golfer went to senior Michelle Middaugh. Michelle improved by 20 strokes in one year.

CLASS

Man in His Environment

The Science department was an ever growing part of NorthWood. It consisted of the classes in Earth Science, Chemistry, Biology, and Physics.

Earth Science, was the study of the earth's characteristics, such as volcanos, earthquakes, and faults, while Chemistry students studied the composition of matter and what keeps a person together.

Biology II students spent nine weeks studying genetics by crossing fruit flies. They also dissected various animals.

Physics was a study of the behavior of different forms of energy, such as mechanical, electrical, light, and nuclear.

BELOW: J. Rhoades steadies the weights during a harmonic motion experiment in physics while R. Rohrer looks on.

Numbers + Equations = Math

The Math department offered several courses that students could choose from. These included Algebra I and II, General Math IA, Algebra IA, Basic Math, Geometry, and Computer Math. Freshmen were required to take a year of math while many sophomores, juniors, and seniors elected to take courses about number equations, sequences, graphs or many other interesting things.

Social Studies: A Year of Learning

One could learn a lot about his country, how his government works or how to understand his fellow citizens by participating in the social studies classes offered this year. These classes included: Civics, U.S. History, World History, Psychology, Sociology, Government and Economics.

Freshmen were required to take the semester long Civics class. Juniors were required to take a year long class which was U.S. History. For the Seniors the semester classes Government and Economics were required. The other social studies classes were not required for anyone, but many students chose to take them.

LEFT: G. Borgman and J. Myers check their house to see that it is all right for Government class.

Sprache and Lengua = Language

For those students who wanted a little more culture in their lives the Foreign Language department was for them. The foreign languages were taught by Mr. Brugger, the German teacher, and Mrs. Parcell, the Spanish teacher. In their classes the teachers taught the students about the culture and what went on in that country as well as how to speak the language. Most students learned more about the English language when they took German or Spanish.

Phases Offer Variety

The English Department offered many courses during the 1979-80 school year. One could pick from the phase levels of one through five. Each course lasted for 9 weeks. Freshmen were required to take four specific classes. Sophomores and Juniors picked the classes they wanted but must have taken a full year of English. English was not a requirement for Seniors although if they wanted to take more English classes they could.

The Finer Things in Life

Concentration and talent were used effectively by many students to produce some very unique art projects. NorthWood had a superior art department as seen in the superb projects shown. The art department consisted of a variety of classes such as drawing, hobby crafts, textiles, painting, ceramics, jewelry, sculpture, and printing. Many of the art students helped design backdrops for the drama productions.

BELOW: M. Teegardin and W. Troyer work on their art projects.

Students use Their Extra Energy

"One-one thousand, two-one thousand, three-one thousand..." is what one heard in first aid while the students practiced two-rescuer CPR. The students learned how to save a choking victim and how to stop bleeding.

The freshman were required to take a whole year of physical education. This year square dancing was added to the already busy schedule of volleyball, basketball and weight control.

Sophomores, juniors and seniors took advanced elective classes in bowling, tennis, and volleyball.

Acquiring New Skills

The Industrial Arts department at NorthWood was a large and growing one. The highly trained teachers instructed young students in practical and useful skills necessary for success in the industrial world. The students became acquainted with industry by operating equipment and learning basic safety procedures.

Industrial Arts students were offered courses that include building trades, woodworking, graphic arts, auto mechanics, mechanical drawing, basic metals and electronics.

Homemaking Skills Perfected

The whirring of a sewing machine or the yummy smell of cooking is what greeted a person when he entered a home economics room. But Foods I and II and Clothing I and II were just two of the courses one could take in home economics. There was also Marriage and family living, Living as two, Creative foods, Child development and many more.

Taking care of an egg, making a scrapbook of the different kinds of love, and planning ones wedding were some projects in Marriage and family living. In Creative foods students made interesting sounding foods such as crepes, egg drop soup, and blintzes. Making a toy for a small child was one of the projects the child development student had to tackle.

Career Center for Future Jobs

The Elkhart Area Career Center is a place where students can get training in the career field of his choice. Some of the career fields available were Cosmetology, Mechanical drawing, Auto shop, and Television. Most of the classes met three hours daily, but some NorthWood students spent four hours a day in cosmetology.

Time spent at the career center is taken up by classroom work and practical experience.

Business Classes Help in the Future

Tap! Tap! Tap! That's what it sounded like in the typing room. The students had a lesson with six to ten items. They had at least five to seven lessons each nine weeks and they learned how to type letters in different styles.

There were three more business classes; general business, shorthand, accounting. General business students learned about balancing a check book, advertising, getting a loan, and getting credit cards.

Shorthand students learned to take dictations at increasing speed from Mrs. Greenlee. They also took dictations from tapes. They will be able to apply what they learned to their job.

If one wanted to be a secretary, other good classes to take were typing I and II, shorthand, general business, and accounting.

Accounting students learned about balancing accounts. If one wanted to be an accountant this was a good class to take.

Driving Toward Perfection

Many sophomores took driver's education during summer school. However, the others took driver's education during the school year. A student was required to take at least thirty hours of book work and six hours of driving time. The student must have been fifteen or over for the book work, and he must have obtained a driver's permit at age sixteen before driving. The student received professional guidance to help him become a better driver.

Tomorrow You'll Never Walk Alone

The choirs were directed by Mrs. Marjorie Mumaw who led the outstanding presentation of the concerts. Winter and Spring Concerts were put together with some difficult songs.

The theme for the Christmas concert was "And On Earth Peace", the theme for Spring Concert was "Tomorrow You'll Never Walk Alone."

All the girls and guys in choir put together two or three songs for Spring Concert and contest. The music department had a fund raising project this year; they sold Cheese and Sausage. The highest seller was Laura Showalter.

Band Has Successful Year

The Northwood band members were kept on the move during the 1979-80 school year. During the last week of August the Marching Band attended band camp where they perfected their marching and started practicing their show for contest.

The bands gave two contests, one at Christmas and one in the Spring. For money for extra music they sold cheese and sausage.

They went to two district contests this year. They participated in a contest on September 29 at Hayworth High School in Kokomo. On December 6 they scored the highest second place at Lewis Cass High School. All in all it was a very successful year.

Hittin' the Books

The sound of the ping pong ball being hit back and forth made an interesting rhythm. This was only one of the many privileges an honor study hall student had. There were two special places for students to go during honor study. These places were the North and South surges. The South surge was mainly for talking and the North was for studying and quiet talking.

There was a mad rush toward the South surge doors after sixth period. These students had work release. Juniors and Seniors could sign up for this. After leaving school, they went to their places of employment.

Then there was the regular study hall. Students went to the cafeteria to study. A certain number of students were allowed to go to the LRC. This study hall was not as much fun, but one got more work done. After all, who said school is fun?

More to Drama Club Than Meets the Eye

The drama club at Northwood offers its members a variety of opportunities to become involved in the theatrical productions. Those members who do not audition for a part in the play may choose to work on one of the many committees.* There is always enough work to keep everyone busy.

Each year the club organizes two productions. The fall production this year was "Pillow Talk" and starred Karen Lentz and Lonnie Ramer. The spring production was a collection of three short plays entitled "The Apple Tree." Both of the productions were enjoyed by all who participated.

*Committee work includes collecting wardrobe and properties, building sets, selling tickets, and helping with make-up.

Athletes and Fans Encouraged by Cheerleaders

Throughout the year the cheerleaders sponsored various activities to boost Panther Spirit. The girls were responsible for planning pep sessions, decorating the halls, and organizing the Pep Club. The cheerleaders proved successful in competition with other cheerleading squads.

Last June the girls participated in cheerleading competition held at Indiana University and both were successful in bringing home first place awards. Later in the summer, the varsity placed fourth in the Elkhart County Fair competition, while the Junior Varsity placed third in their division.

The leadership shown by the cheerleaders was truly appreciated. Their never-ending enthusiasm and tireless efforts were an important contribution to all of the athletic activities throughout the year.

Pep Band and Pep Club Work Together

An important part of the sports program at Northwood High School was the great enthusiasm expressed by the students. They demonstrated this by their involvement with the pep club and pep band. Both clubs were well-represented by students grades nine through twelve.

The pep club had many members who supported the athletes through victory and defeat. The enthusiasm of the pep club could be felt by a visiting team and was many times overwhelming. The coaches and players appreciated both the pep club and pep band.

The pep band, under the direction of band director Adrian Mark, was as much an important part of the sports season as the pep club. The school song was played at least once at every home game and the lively songs played during half-time were enjoyed by the fans. The pep band and pep club worked together to generate enthusiasm among all.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Fellowship of Christian Athletes was comprised mainly of athletes, although the organization was open to anyone. The officers for the year were; T. Loucks—president, T. Grove—vice-president, and T. Miller—secretary-treasurer. The local club had no dues, but those members who wished to be a part of the national FCA organization paid membership dues.

The club sent eight people to summer conferences in Colorado while four boys attended one in Minnesota. The students were partially sponsored by members of the community and paid the remainder themselves. The club also had a special meeting with West Noble and a pizza party.

Two gym parties were held during the year. The first one was early in the year, while later a conference-wide gym party was held at Wawasee. The club also took a canoe trip in May. Several films were shown during the year. One was on Kyle Rote Jr., a soccer player and another was about Paul Anderson, the world's strongest man. FCA also held prayer breakfasts every Thursday morning throughout the year.

Neither Rain or Dead of Night Dampened Spirits

One of the highlights of the year for a group of seniors and juniors was a trip to New York City with the Travel Club. The group was gone for four days during November. While in New York, the students enjoyed a wide variety of new experiences such as sight-seeing, attending the Broadway play "Chorus Line," and shopping in downtown New York. Despite the rainy weather, the trip was a memorable and enjoyable one.

Throughout the year the Logue staff worked hard to prepare the yearbook. Each member of the staff was assigned to a specific area such as advertisements, clubs, sports, and academics. In each of these areas a great deal of time and effort was required. There were pictures to be taken, layouts to be done and copy to be written. The staff worked hard under the direction of advisors, Mrs. Korenstra and Mr. Troyer; and co-editors, Jill Myers and Bev Brossman.

During the summer, Bev, Jill, and Jr.-editor, Barb attended a yearbook workshop at Ball State University. At the workshop they were given new ideas on how to develop a good yearbook. The girls were also awarded for the best yearbook theme and best compers.

The Thespian Society was made up of Drama Club members who earned ten or more drama points. Students were awarded points according to the number of hours spent on the productions.

This year the Thespians organized two productions. The first production entitled "No, No, a Million Times No" was a lighthearted melodrama which was performed in December. It helped to finance the theatre study trip taken in June by a select group of Thespians.

Later, in June the Thespians organized a production entitled "Shenendoah" which involved alumni Thespians.

Y-Teens Is an Active Service-Oriented Club

Throughout the year, Y-Teens provided its members with an interesting variety of activities. The year began with the initiation meeting which involved about fifty girls. The newly assembled group met every Tuesday.

Two main events for the year were the Christmas party for faculty children and a disco dance. Faculty members brought their children to the party which involved games, food, and gifts. Another event was a dance which featured the WRBR disco machine. The entire student body was invited to an evening of fun and food.

However, the highlight of the year was Saturday's Child. Y-Teens sponsored a program for young children so they could obtain new skills. Northwood students assisted in teaching classes such as basketball, guitar, and cooking.

The Y-Teens again fulfilled their role as an active service-oriented club.

Assistants Contribute Valuable Time

The guidance office, library, and office were three areas which depended on volunteer student help in order to remain efficient. The office staffs appreciated the time spent by the students.

The library assistants did general library work. They performed tasks such as checking books in and out. They also did filing and were a great asset to Mrs. Harvey, the librarian.

The guidance assistants got students for the guidance counselors and also ran various other errands. They obtained various kinds of information.

The office assistants answered the phone and took messages. They brought the messages to students in various classes. All the girls took at least one hour out of their school day in order to be an assistant. These girls were very much appreciated by the office workers and faculty.

Student Council Does Many Varied Duties

One of the biggest accomplishments of student council, at least in the eyes of the student body, was the switching of the school's radio station. Student council bought the office secretaries two radios in order that the students might listen to U93. Student council received their money from student fees and the book store.

This money was used in various other ways also. One way their money was utilized was in initiating a loan to the literary magazine. Student council also matched the student funds given at Christmas time for the Cambodian refugees.

Student council sponsored Homecoming and Sweetheart elections and also organized and conducted SWAP Day. They also assisted in conducting "political elections." Student council performed many activities and was greatly appreciated.

Campus Life . . . more than Just a good time.

Throughout the year, Campus Life members were entertained by a variety of activities. The weekly meetings were held on Monday nights at various student's homes, and provided students with the opportunity to discuss various issues. The meetings dealt with such topics as the future, parents, peer pressure, and dating.

In addition to weekly meetings, Campus Life held activities with other schools. The all-night party at the Elkhart YMCA and the annual pillow fight were two of the year's highlights. During Spring Break, Campus Life organized a trip to Florida. The group stayed at Lakewood Camp. In addition to spending time at the beach, the group spent a day at Disneyland. They also had the option of choosing to make a trip to Cyprus Gardens or a professional baseball game. Informative seminars were also offered.

Future Farmers of America (F.F.A.) Learn Responsibilities

"Practice Brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership a future farmer should possess."

The F.F.A. motto was important to the F.F.A. in everyday life and was said at all important meetings.

The highlight in this organization was the annual banquet held at Port-A-Pit Banquet Hall, where the awards for the past year were given. Other activities included the slave auction, seed sales, and the dairy and livestock judging.

New Group Is a Welcome Addition

The guys gymnastic team really appreciated the addition of a new group, the Gymnettes. This group of girls went to the meets and cheered the guys on to victory. They put signs on the gymnast's lockers, and cookies inside. The girls not only went to the meets and cheered, but also kept score and occasionally helped take down equipment. The girls' hard work and spirit was very much appreciated.

National Honor Society and Media Club

The National Honor Society is a high standard organization of juniors and seniors. National Honor Society members are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The highlight of the year was the induction ceremony, in which new members were introduced into the group. Four senior members gave speeches at the ceremony. Sixteen juniors and nine seniors were inducted at the ceremony. Mr. Frederick and Mrs. Parcell were the group sponsors.

In the fall, members of the Media Club meet during activity period in order to learn how to operate the audio-visual equipment. The members were then able to operate the machines whenever needed. They videotaped various sports activities, drama productions, musical productions, and some classroom projects. The members also learned to operate movie projectors which were used extensively by many departments. Mrs. Harvey is the sponsor of the Media Club.

Mat Maids: a Vital Part of Wrestling Team

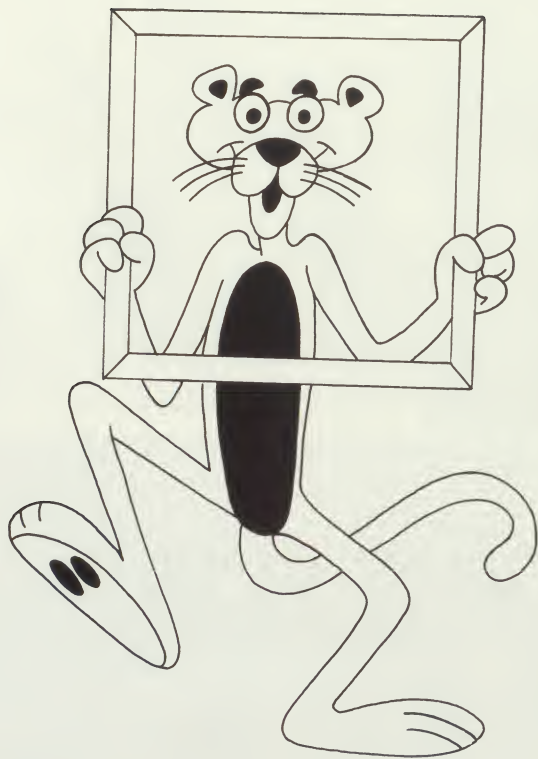

The Mat Maids were active supporters of the wrestlers. They kept score at meets and compiled each wrestler's individual record. The girls also supported the wrestlers in ways which were not required. Various posters could be seen throughout the halls and on the wrestlers' lockers. The Mat Maid's support was deeply appreciated by wrestlers and coaches alike.

They Keep Us Fed and Clean

Everyday the cooks and janitors worked behind the scenes to keep us comfortable.

The cooks, headed by Betty Leinbach, arrived by 6:45 a.m. each day to begin preparing the daily lunches.

The janitors worked a long, busy day and were gifted in cleanups and repairs.

Especially important to us was Dale Stouder who retired this year after eleven years of faithful service.

UPPER RIGHT: J. Clem and C. Metzler enjoy dressing up for Halloween.

Cooks: Front—C. Metzler, M. Sparks, T. Gessinger, Back—J. Clem, M. Ervin, P. Johnston, C. Warren, M. Berky, E. Forrest.

 UPPER RIGHT: Janitors—D. Stouder, J. Culp, S.
 Slabaugh, E. Yoder.
 BELOW: The cooks enjoy goofing-off on Halloween.

The Decision Makers

The principal, superintendents, and school secretaries were busy throughout the year trying to keep the school system in top working order. They spent many hours planning, studying projects and arranging details.

One of the main items they were confronted with was the starting of the large addition project planned for NorthWood High.

BELOW: Administrative Secretaries: R. Eastland, J. Riley, J. Engle, P. Elliot.
BELOW RIGHT: W. Dorsey, Superintendent; J. Miller, J. Lelle, Assistant Superintendents.

Seniors: Something Special

We're really something special at least I've always thought, just look at all the things we've done and all that we've been taught.

We had to learn to understand and learn to grow and share, find what's meant by wrong and right and what is really fair.

We're each a different person unique in every way, finding a new experience in every brand new day.

So as we reach our destiny
to go and find a life, we're really starting over with our confusion and our strife.

You see we're now a Senior the ones that leave a trace, where others will come and go to try and take our place.

"These SENIORS are the very BEST!"

The Juniors were involved in many activities at Northwood this year. During Homecoming they displayed their artistic abilities and won the honor of "Most Original Float". The Junior class began to look toward their future and contemplate what they were going to do after high school. The PSAT test was taken by the majority of the class in preparation for that important SAT test next year. The highlight of the year was planning for that special evening . . . the prom.

PRESS ON!

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence.

Talent will not;

Nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent.

Genius will not;

Unrewarded genius is almost a proverb.

Education alone will not.

The world is full of educated derelicts.

Persistence and determination alone are the ways to success.

Karen Kurtz made a minor correction.

Sophomores . . . Drivers License . . . Class Rings

The Sophomores, with one more year of experience, started an enthusiastic second year. This was the year of the Biology insect collection, the excitement of that first driver's license, and the fun of ordering class rings. It also marked the beginning of more involvement in athletics, drama and music.

CLOCKWISE: "Don't worry Michele, we won't tell!"

Is Joe Ponch's look-alike?

P. Wenger, J. Sluiter, and T. Beer served as the class officers.

T. Eash practiced her ping pong.

T. Richmond and J. Lambert helped the janitors clean the halls!

Scared . . . Naive . . . Thoughtful . . .

Those students who were always last in line, totally scared, uncertain about the future, and overall curious can be described as the Freshmen. However, they brought original and fresh ideas to the conventional upper classmen. Their ambitious spirit was evident in all the activities in which they participated.

These Freshmen guys had a good time on "dress down" day during spirit week.

HUE THI NGUYEN

Northwood students had the opportunity to tutor a Vietnamese girl this year. It was difficult for Hue to communicate with the students due to the fact that she could not speak English. The students assisted her in developing her skills in English and Math. She faced many new experiences such as hamburgers, french fries, Santa Claus, Thanksgiving, and snow. As the year progressed it was exciting to see her adjust to her new life in America.

The Freshmen class officers were C. Stump, W. Rohrer, and P. Beery.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK with a long-term condition has increased by 50% (Department of Health 1999). The prevalence of long-term conditions is expected to increase further as the population ages (Department of Health 1999).

Long-term conditions are those that are chronic, recurrent or persistent, and are not cured by treatment. They are often associated with disability and may require ongoing medical or nursing care. Long-term conditions are often managed by a range of health professionals, including general practitioners, nurses, pharmacists, physiotherapists, dietitians, and health visitors. The management of long-term conditions is often complex and requires a coordinated approach. The management of long-term conditions is often a long-term process, and it is important for patients to be involved in their own care.
